

The FCC should reject NAB's petition 04-160. I listen to XM in the car and the office. We are or should be a free market system where competition is good. Let the market decide what they want to listen to regarding music, traffic and weather. Thank you